In response to your inquiry to THE OFFICE Magazine for information on our Packo Label, we are pleased to enclose herewith a descriptive folder on our popular #465 size. This folder contains specification and use data, prices, terms, etc. as well as an actual sample of the product. Specifications and prices on a smaller size, #350, and a larger size, #690, are also enclosed.

Packo Labels are being enthusiastically accepted in all industries due to their low cost, versatility and value as a cost cutting device. Their value is obvious.

We look forward to receiving your initial trial order. Savings and efficiency in your shipping department will start immediately. Should you need additional information or samples, please let us know.

Thank you!
